Finding your uniqueness and true beauty

The purpose of the True Beauty Workshop Series is to nurture in girls an understanding of the notion that "true beauty" emerges from the inside out and that it can include a variety of looks and styles. Girls will have the opportunity to look within to gain a better understanding of who they are. The workshop aims to be fun, safe, and interactive. Girls will leave feeling equipped with tools, and they will have the chance to meet other girls who are just like them. A take home workbook is provided with the hope that it can be used in the future to remind the girls of the lessons they learned and to embrace the positive messages about themselves.

Lindsay Sealey, M.A. Ed. is an educator, writer, and personal development coach for girls. She has extensive experience working with young girls in the areas of: self-esteem, confidence, personal best, goal-setting, self-advocacy, and body image. She is warm, caring, patient, engaging, and inspiring. True Beauty is a workshop based on Lindsay's observations and experience with girls struggling to feel good about themselves and know their self-worth. Lindsay hopes to inspire in girls a celebration of their uniqueness. She is committed to leading young girls to accept, love, and embrace who they are!
